

CB1 Update: Revocable Consent

September 3, 2026

What is Revocable Consent?

- Formal agreement issued by the Department of Transportation (DOT) allowing temporary or permanent alteration of space within City DOT jurisdiction
- Required for both South and North/West Resiliency Projects
- SBPCR Revocable Consent process dates from 2024

Who reviews Revocable Consent petitions?

- Approval process is led by DOT and reviewed by:
 1. FDNY
 2. NYPD
 3. Department of Parks and Recreation (DPR)
 4. Borough President
 5. Several DOT departments
 6. Department of Buildings (DOB)
 7. Department of Environmental Protection (DEP)
 8. Public Design Commission (PDC)
 9. City Council
 10. Community Board

DOT/PDC Jurisdiction for the SBPCR Project

8 Different Petitions across 5 Block/Lots

- Block 3/ Lot 1 (The Battery)
 - Revocable Consent
 - Flood Mitigation
 - Security (Bollards)
- Block 16/ Lot 1 (Pier A Plaza)
 - Revocable Consent
 - Flood Mitigation
- Block 16/ Lot 3 (Wagner Park)
 - Security (Cameras)
- Block 16/ Lot 10 (Museum of Jewish Heritage)
 - Flood Mitigation
- Block 16/ Lot 15 (South Cove Plaza)
 - Revocable Consent

Thank you

